

Some books / papers in User-Centered Design

Listed by Jung-Joo Lee (jung-joo.lee@taik.fi)

Movements in Design Philosophies and Methods for User Experience Design

Design Probes (2007) by Tuuli Mattelmäki, Dissertation, UIAH

Empathic Design (2003) by Ilpo Koskinen, Katja Battarbee & Tuuli Mattelmäki (eds), UIAH

Product Concept Design (2006) by Turkka Keinonen & Roope Takala (eds), Springer

Video in User-Centered Design (2007) by Ylirisku, S. & Buur, J., Springer

Some books which brought new notions in UCD

The Design of Everyday Things (2002) by Donald Norman

Emotional Design: Why we love (or hate) everyday things (2004) by Donald Norman

Designing pleasurable products: An Introduction to the New Human Factors (2000) by Patrick Jordan, Taylor & Francis

Innovative Methods in UCD & Co-Design (papers)

Cultural Probes (1999) by Gaver, W., Dunne, T. & Pacenti, E. Interactions, vol. 6, no.,1 ACM Press, New York, 21–29

Experience Prototyping (2000) by Buchenau, M. & Fulton Suri, J.F. In Proceedings of DIS 2000, ACM Press, New York, 424–433

Design for Experiencing: New tools. (1999) by Sanders, E.B.-N. & Dandavate, U. In Proceedings of the first international conference on design and emotion, TU Delft, Delft. The Netherlands, 87–92.

(Visit Elizabeth Sanders' website www.maketools.com, you can find many papers on generative sessions and make tools)

And more...

- Most books are available in our school library. For papers, you can go to ACM portal <http://portal.acm.org/portal.cfm> and download them. It's not free website, downloading is available through the school internet.
- In the book of "Empathic Design", you can find many good references, too. Good luck ☺